*In 1972 and 1973, the four-team CAC played a round-robin tournament to decide its league champion. The best combined record in the three games was declared conference champion. Centre, Southwestern-TN and Washington & Lee all went 2-1 at the 1972 tournament, therefore the three were declared CAC Tri-Champions. In 1973, Sewanee went 3-0 to earn the league title.
