SCAC BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT GOES LIVE; ALL 14 GAMES TO BE WEBCAST

SUWANEE, Ga. – The Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference, in conjunction with WGRE, the radio home for DePauw University Athletics, Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology and Free Teamline, has announced plans to broadcast all 14 games of the upcoming SCAC Basketball Tournament on the Internet. For the third consecutive year, Rhodes College in Memphis, Tennessee, will serve as host school for the event.

Eight men's and women's teams earned the right to be in the championships and the winners will be crowned SCAC champions as well as earn automatic berths in the NCAA Division III championships that begin next week.

WGRE will webcast 10 of the 14 tournament games, with nine of the games being covered live. Rose-Hulman will broadcast its men's game on Friday and any subsequent games on Saturday and Sunday that involve Rose-Hulman teams.

The SCAC office has contracted with Free Teamline to provide coverage of the remaining four games on Friday that will not be covered by either WGRE or Rose-Hulman. These games can be listened to over the Internet free of charge by accessing a link from the SCAC website or Free Teamline.

The following is the broadcast schedule for the SCAC Tournament, with all times listed locally (CST). Click to the SCAC Tournament website for links to all games (www.scac-online.org/bballtourney)
