Facts and Footnotes

- Men's cross country did not count towards the All-Sports/President's Trophy Championship from its first championship in 1964-65 thru 1967-68. Beginning in 1968-69, men's cross country has counted towards the championship.
- Men's swimming did not count towards the All-Sports/President's Trophy Championship from 1966-67 through 1968-69.
- Southwestern College at Memphis became Rhodes College beginning with the 1984-85 academic year. All records show the school as SW @ Memphis from 1962-63 until 1983-84, and then as Rhodes College from 1984-85 until present. Southwestern University of Texas began participation in 1994-95 and all records show the school as S'western-TX.
- Washington = Washington University of St. Louis, Missouri
W & L = Washington and Lee University
Illinois = Illinois College
- The President's Trophy Championship has been and currently is awarded to the school with the best combined point total of men's and women's sports, beginning with the 1991-92 academic year. All previous champions in the CAC were based on men's sports only. Women's athletics were incorporated into the SCAC beginning with the 1991-92 academic year.
