BENNING AND TOURVILLE OF HENDRIX; ROWLAND OF TRINITY EARN TOP HONORS IN ALL-SCAC WOMEN'S SOCCER VOTING

Junior forward Stephanie Benning and coach Glen Tourville, both of Hendrix College, were selected as SCAC Player and Coach-of-the-Year respectively, and Lindsay Rowland of Trinity University was tabbed as the league's Freshman-of-the-Year in exclusive all-conference voting by the league's head coaches.

Benning, the first player in the history of the Hendrix soccer program to garner player-of-the-year honors, had 14 goals and eight assists for the Warriors during the 2001 season. Just a junior, Benning is already fifth all-time on the SCAC career goals scored list with 53. Only Sara Morgan of Centre College (1995-98) averaged more goals per game than Benning has in her three years at Hendrix. In addition, she is tied for 10th all-time in the conference in points scored with 118 (53 goals, 12 assists).

Coach Glen Tourville guided the Hendrix women to their first-ever winning season as the Warriors finished 10-5-1 overall. More importantly, Hendrix finished 5-3-1 and fourth-place in the SCAC – the highest finish ever for the women's team. When Tourville arrived in 1997, Hendrix had never won a conference game and was 4-57-1 overall since joining the league in 1992. The last three seasons, the Warriors are 26-21-1 overall and have seen their conference victory total rise from two to three to this season's 10 in that stretch.

Rowland had a phenomenal rookie season for Trinity, scoring a league-leading 19 goals from her forward position. She finished second on the team and in the league in scoring – averaging 2.33 points per game, trailing only teammate Erica Adelstein. Her play was key in propelling the Tigers to a perfect 9-0-0 conference mark, 15-3-0 overall record, and a berth into the NCAA tournament.
