ADELSTEIN AND TARRILLION OF TRINITY;
BURNS OF SEWANEE EARN TOP HONORS
IN 2002 ALL-SCAC WOMEN'S SOCCER VOTING

Senior midfielder Erica Adelstein and first-year forward Margot Tarrillion, both of Trinity University, were selected as SCAC Player and Freshman-of-the-Year respectively, and Margot Burns of The University of the South-Sewanee was tabbed as the conference's Coach-of-the-Year in exclusive all-conference voting by the league's head coaches.

Adelstein, a three-year All-SCAC performer, finished the regular season with nine goals and 20 assists, setting a new SCAC single-season record for assists. Among her nine scores, she had two game-winning goals. In her career, Adelstein has 38 goals and 58 assists, which is the SCAC record for career assists. Adelstein is also tied for fourth in the SCAC in career points (134). She has led the team to a record of 20-1-0 this year, including a 19-game win streak and a spot in the NCAA Division III National Quarterfinals this Saturday against University of Puget Sound (Wash.).

Adelstein received six votes for POTY, followed by Jessica Farmer of Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology, who had two votes. Suzy Prucka of Southwestern University and Amanda Seifert of Sewanee each received one vote.

Tarrillion becomes the second consecutive Trinity player to take Freshman-of-the-Year honors, following Lindsay Rowland in 2001. Tarrillion led all freshmen, and was fourth in the SCAC, in scoring with 15 goals and five assists for 35 points. She had the game-winner in Saturday's 2-0 region semifinal victory over Emory (Ga.) University. Tarrillion's play has been key in propelling the Tigers to a perfect 9-0-0 conference mark, 20-1-0 overall record, and a spot in the Division III National Quarterfinals.

Tarrillion received seven votes in the balloting for FOTY. Meghan Davis of Rhodes College, Amber Hoffman of Rose-Hulman and Robin Thompson of Southwestern received one vote each.

Margot Burns, in her seventh season as the head women's soccer coach at Sewanee, guided the Tigers to a 14-4-0 record this fall after finishing 7-9-0 a year ago. Sewanee set new school single-season records for wins (14) and shutouts (11), and finished the 2002 campaign tied for third in the SCAC with a 6-3-0 mark and ranked ninth in the South region. Burns, who has an overall coaching record of 66-55-5, is a first-time recipient of the SCAC Coach-of-the-Year award. In the balloting for COTY, Burns received four votes, followed closely by Rose-Hulman's Brad Hauter, who received three votes. Greg Ashton of Trinity was next with two votes and John Carter of DePauw University received one vote.
