RHODES COLLEGE WINS SCAC WOMEN'S CROSS COUNTRY CHAMPIONSHIP TO TAKE SECOND TITLE IN THREE YEARS

Danville, Ky. -- Rhodes College, with a team score of 38, won its second SCAC women's cross country title in three years as the Lynx had four runners finish in the top 10 at the 2001 SCAC Cross Country Championships held on the campus of Centre College. The Lynx were led by junior Amy Paine, who took the individual title with a time of 19:06.28 - the 13th-fastest finishing time in the history of the SCAC championships.

By virtue of her win, Paine was named the 2001 SCAC Women's Runner-of-the-Year – the first Rhodes' female runner to win the award since Nicole Horvath swept the honor for three-consecutive years from 1995-1997.

DePauw University, which was trying to defend its 2000 championship, finished a close second with a team score of 42. The Tigers had three runners finish in the top 10, led by first-year runner Natalie Shaffer, who came in second behind Paine.
